SPRING 2008

Inspiration

Our vibe for Spring/Summer 2008 is exceptionally strong and directional. We feel that the mens market is a bit flat right now, the over embellished LA rocker look is played, the vintage tattoo look has been done to death, and mock premium is running rampant.

We brought a very refreshing "spring pallet" into Howe this season. With mood indigo, stone, suspect gray, and blanco brillante anchoring the collection we accented it with Two in the pink, Yellow Man, Periwinkle, and Ultra Violet. These colors for men are very fresh.

We have a whole new woven shirt program that is highlighted by "double layered" voile cotton shirts, printed in the middle of two layers which give the shirts a really cool ghosting effect. Also, amazing cut out embroidered cuffs and collars that have been dip dyed, as well as a lux 100 x 100's two ply shirting that would make Savile Row proud. Double layered 50 singles knits that are once again printed from the middle layer and reversable, add an exciting dimension to the garment. In fact, we are using a lot of double layered-convertable cuffs and collars that give the wearer options on how he wants to rock the piece. Its very fresh and must be seen to appreciate.

The art direction is a very cool mixture of Japanese geisha meets vintage tattoo art, mixed with English Baroque fantasy and illustrative art, once again bringing two uber hip cultures together. Adding pigment and reactive hand dipped washes to knits, tees, non denim 5 pocket jeans, and trousers give the collection a very lived in and perfectly faded finish.

We're using a very special technique to print light weight french terry bottoms and tees, where artwork only shows up once we hand dye the garment. Its really fun and we anticipate it will bring a whole new dimension to the premium market.

Most notable... we have expanded our bottoms in non denim, yarn dyed twills, ralley trousers, and chajenos (mix between jeans and chinos) as well as a whole new walkshort program. The minimal denim presence has given the collection a very fresh and directional look.

We are very excited to see Howe evolve into a Spring collection that merges new washes, color pallets and art direction yet maintains the authentic "Howe Identity". We look forward in sharing our success with you this season.
